

Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity Claims of Asylum: A European human rights challenge – SOGICA

The SOGICA conference – 7-9 July 2020 Draft programme¹

Day 1: Tuesday 7 July

9.00-9.30 – Introduction by Prof Nuno Ferreira, SOGICA project

9.30-10.30 – First day keynote speaker – Katrin Hugendubel, ILGA-Europe

11.00-12.15 Session 1 – International

- The Yogyakarta Principles plus 10: Advocacy opportunities at the national, regional and international level – Paul Dillane and Devon Matthews
- Silence Written in Policy: Global Compact on Refugees and LGBTIQ+ persons – Tina Dixon
- Filling the gaps? The role of UNHCR 'soft law' instruments in developing the EU framework on asylum claims based on sexual orientation and/or gender identity – Denise Venturi

11.00-12.15 Session 2 – Determination I

- LGBT claimants denied refugee status due to multi-layer marginalisation – Allan Briddock
- SOGI-related asylum claims in Greece and the legal implications arising from the specific protection needs of LGBTIQ person – Maria Mpasdeki and Dr. Zafiris Tsiftzis
- What is the impact of international and national law on LGBTIQ+ Syrian refugees in Turkey? – Ayşe Uzun

1-2.15 Session 3 – Identities I

- The Bisexuality Blind Spot: An exploration into asylum claims on the basis of persecution due to bisexual orientation in the Netherlands – Sofia D'Arcio
- Trans* and Inter* Persons in the Context of Migration/Flight – Prof Christel Baltes-Löhr
- Reality is not binary: Spotlighting the existing gaps in the EU and Italian asylum system for transgender applicants – Elisabeth Cucco and Chiara Scissa

1-2.15 Session 4 – Europe

- Critical issues of European case law relating to SOGI related asylum claims – Adele Del Guercio
- How are SOGI related asylum claims legally adjudicated at domestic, EU and Council of Europe levels? – Edward Mutebi
- The protection of LGBTIQ asylum seekers: the evolution of the Jurisprudence of the two European Courts and the assessment of credibility – Gerardo Petrillo

¹ All times are British Standard Time (BST)

1-2.15 Session 5 – Determination II

- Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity. Immigration and Reception. Italian perspective – Mara Biancamano
- SOGI as a basis for Membership of a PSG: A Multi-National Legal Guide – Neil Grungras
- Asylum seekers and their status as refugees or as beneficiaries of international protection: the Italian approach – Ornella Odituro

1-2.15 Workshop 1

The Experience of Simultaneity in Context of SOGI, Asylum and Society – Katja Schroder and Marlen Vahle

3-4.15 Session 6 – Credibility I

- Assessing claimants' sexual orientation: the role of LGBT+ organizations – Luca P. De Cristofaro
- What is a credible narrative? The problematic utilization of credibility in SOGI asylum determination in European asylum courts – Dr Nick Gill and Dr Nicole Hoellerer
- The Essential is Invisible to the Eyes: Complexities Regarding the Concept of “Perceived Sexual Orientation” and its Legal Implications in Asylum Procedures Credibility – Lucas Ramon Mendos

3-4.15 Session 7 – Identities II

- Assessing the asylum claims of trans and gender non-conforming claimants – Maria Avgeri
- The Refugee Status Determination of Transgender Asylum-Seekers: A Queer Critique – Irene Manganini
- Challenges in the eligibility of lesbians as asylum claimants based on sexual orientation – Letícia Vieira da Silva

Day 2: Wednesday 8 July

9.30-10.30 – Second day keynote speaker – Professor Emeritus Viti Muntarbhorn of Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok; KBE; formerly UN Special Rapporteur, UN Independent Expert and member of UN Commissions of Inquiry on Human Rights

11.00-12.15 Session 8 – Methods

- New approaches to study SOGI asylum claimants and refugees – Vitor Lopes Andrade
- A Digital Archive of LGBTIQ Oral Histories about Forced Migration – Renee Dixon
- Voice through the visual: Photovoice as a platform for LGBT+ asylum seekers and refugees in the UK – Paschal Gumadwong Bagonza

11.00-12.15 Session 9 – Credibility II

- Pride or Shame? LGBTI asylum in The Netherlands – Sabine Jansen
- The Emotional Journey and the DSSH model: a positive tool for credibility assessment – Dr S Chelvan
- Credibility assessment in asylum claims based on SO by the Greek Asylum Service – Sophia Zisakou

1-2.15 Session 10 – Support I

- Combatting Sexual and Gender Based Violence towards Refugees Turkey Activists / Academic Turkey Multiple Precarities: Reflections from SOGI Refugees applications to a Civil Society Protection Project in Turkey – Prof Jade Cemre Erciyes and Ilksen Gürsoy
- Innovative and Intersectional Practices for Young LGBTQ Migrants, Asylum Seekers and Refugees in Sweden: The experience of two projects of RFSL Ungdom Support – Fernando Damazio dos Santos, Haris Eloy and Alexandra Politidis Palm
- Immigration and Reception. Italian perspective – Dr Carmela Ferrara

1-2.15 Session 11 – Reception

- Identità in TransITO. Reception and support for migrants and asylum seekers Trans – Letizia De-Coll' and Luca Falzea
- LGBTI+ migrants stranded in the Italian reception system – Rafael Pascoal
- If you leave, the blame's on you? A human rights-based perspective on LGBTIQ asylum seekers' entitlement to protection from violence in accommodation centres – Dr Petra Sussner

3-4.15 Session 12 – Country of Origin Information (COI)

- The importance of source assessment: Comparative analysis of the U.S. Department of State Country Reports on Human Rights Practice – Stephanie Huber
- Researching SOGI issues in the context of COI: example Iraq – Gabriele Roth
- The role of the European Asylum Support Office (EASO) and COI – Adriana Van Den Berg

3-4.15 Session 13 – Agency I

- Cultural implications and challenges in the support and assessment of 'vulnerable' asylum seekers in Italy – Dany Carnassale
- Queer asylum seekers in Paris: negotiating (non-) belonging in urban spaces – Florent Chossière
- Austrian Asylum Politics: Queer Asylum in Times of Hypernormalization of Far-Right Politics, Greenwashing & Homonationalism – Magdalena Mach

3-4.15 Performance

Ice and Fire UK – performance followed by Q&A

Day 3: Thursday 9 July

9.30-10.45 Session 14 – Activism

- The Right to Legal Assistance for LGBTIQ* Asylum Seekers in Germany & the Role of Volunteer Initiatives such as the Queer Refugee Law Clinic Berlin – Tina-Maleen Bölle
- Queer Sisterhood Project: the value of refugee-led support and advocacy – Renee Dixson and Tina Dixson
- LGBTQI+ asylum advocacy under “friendly” and “hostile” governments: lessons from the USA – Siobhan McGuirk

9.30-10.45 Session 15 – Agency II

- LGBTIQ+ refugees and social isolation – Dr Nina Held and Dr Mengia Tschalaer
- ‘Rainbow Statelessness’ - Between Sexual Citizenship and Legal Theory: Exploring the Statelessness-SOGIESC Nexus for LGBTIQ+ Asylum Seekers – Thomas McGee
- The role of social work in supporting SOGI asylum seekers and refugees – queering and decolonizing social work practice – Inka Söderström

11.00-12.15 Session 16 – Micro Rainbow panel

A holistic approach to integration of LGBTI refugees – Alana Eissa, Lara Goodwin and Barry O'Leary

11.00-12.15 Session 17 – Discretion

- Developments in the last decade – Bojana Asanovic
- Why Heteronormativity Matters: The not so lost Requirement of Discretion in (Austrian) Asylum Law – Dr Petra Sussner
- The Concealment Controversy. Sexual orientation, discretion reasoning and the scope of refugee protection + Invariably 'Discreet': Sexuality-based Asylum Claims in Germany and France – Dr Janna Wessels

1-2.15 Session 18 – Religion

- Religion and NGO support in the UK – Dr Moira Dustin
- The role of religion for identity and integration of LGBTIQ+ asylum seekers and refugees in Germany – Ernesto Fiocchetto
- Religious experiences during asylum seeking in the UK and its reflection within legal decision making – Claire Fletcher

1-2.15 Session 19 – Credibility III. Similar stereotypical constructions of sexual orientation in different European countries

- The UK: Excessive focus on articulation of ‘self-realisation’ and development of identity - Leila Zadeh
- The Netherlands: Assumptions of an emotional process of awareness, from shame to self-acceptance - Sabine Jansen
- Norway: Expectations of ‘self-actualisation’ and detailed reflections on one’s sexual orientation - Andrea Gustafsson Grønningsæter
- TBC: Sweden - Aino Gröndahl

1-2.15 Workshop 2

- Working WITH LGBTIQ refugees and migrants, not on/above/about us! – Masha Beketova

3-4.15 Session 20 – Origins

- A Gender-Sensitive Securitization of the Common European Asylum System? The EU List of "Safe Countries of Origin" and its Impact on LGBTI+ Asylum-Seekers – Amandine Le Bellec
- Life in the countries of origin, departure and travel towards Europe – Dr Carmelo Danisi
- Transcribing the margins: A community based research examining trans specificity in Dutch asylum procedure – Willemijn van Kempen and Alejandra Ortiz

3-4.15 Session 21 – Support II

- Canada's LGBTQ+ refugee sponsorship program - Nicholas Hersh
- Social Remittances and Transnational Activism amongst Transgender Asylum-Seekers in Europe and the United States – Isabel Soloaga
- UK Legal aid reforms and their impact on SOGI asylum claims – Dr Jo Wilding

4.30-5.30 – Final keynote speaker – Victor Madrigal-Borloz, UN Independent Expert on Protection against violence and discrimination based on sexual orientation and gender identity

5.30–6 Concluding comments – Prof Nuno Ferreira

This project has received funding from the European Research Council (ERC) under the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme (grant agreement No 677693).

European Research Council
Established by the European Commission

SCHOOL OF LAW, POLITICS AND SOCIOLOGY
University of Sussex | Freeman Building | Brighton BN1 9QE | United Kingdom
www.sussex.ac.uk/lps